

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION AT A.M.SHAIKH HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE, PG & RESEARCH CENTER

International Women's Day was celebrated at A.M.Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College Nehru Nagar Belgavi recently. Students of AMSC along with staff actively participated in the function.

The chief guest for the event was Brahma kumara Sister Pratibha. The celebration recognized Women's accomplishment & promotes equality for Women in all the aspects of life.

Addressing the gathering Brahma kumara Sister Pratibha advised Women to scale new heights in all the aspects of life. She further said that all the Women should contribute their mite in achieving justice to Women and asked to support the cause of Women and fight for their rights. Speaking further she said that it is a day when Women are recognized for their achievements without regards to divisions, whether national, ethnic, linguistic, cultural, economic or political. She addressed the students with realistic approach for self defense, empowerment, loyalty and harmony in both professional and personal life.

Dr. F.M.Ansari chairman of Women harassment cell of AMSC said that-“Women's dignity and respect is maintained by herself not by anyone else we need not ask for dignity, right way of thinking and making right decision is important.”

.

\