

A.M.SHAIKH HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE BELAGAVI ORGANIZED A GUEST LECTURE

The Department of Community Medicine, A.M.SHAIKH HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE BELAGAVI organized a guest lecture for final year BHMS students at District TB Office Belagavi on the topic of Importance of National Health Programme-RNTCP.

The event began with an introduction of the guests by Mr.MD. Sanen final year student.

The lecture was delivered by two experts on the subject Dr.Chandini Devadi District TB Officer & Dr.Arпита LMO Khasbag.

Dr.Chandini Devadi madam interacted with the students about Tuberculosis disease its incidence & prevalence, clinical features and its significance in diagnosing the disease.

Dr.Arпита who is a trained TB medical officer detailed about the TB national programme and explained about the newer concept adapted by the Government of India to eliminate TB . She emphasized on the role of a doctor in controlling the disease by early diagnosis & ensuring the completion of treatment.

The lecture was followed by an interactive session between the students & the guest speakers were the students actively participated.

Miss Farhamehdi Athani final year student proposed the vote of thanks.

The event was graced by the presence of Dr. B.N. Tukkar sir Medical Officer NTP.

The whole event was organized by Dr.V.R.Kulkarni HOD Department of Community medicine & Officials from District TB office.

GUEST LECTURE ON NTP AT DISTRICT TB OFFICE BELAGAVI.

GUEST SPEAKER DR.CHANDINI DEVADI- DISTRICT TB OFFICER ADDRESSING THE STUDENTS.

GUEST SPEAKER DR.ARPITA LMO KHASBAG ADDRESSING THE STUDENTS.