

A. M. SHAIKH HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE,
HOSPITALS AND PG RESEARCH CENTRE, BELGAUM.

WORKSHOP ON BASIC COURSE IN EDUCATIONAL METHODOLOGY

The Basic Course in Educational Methodology was successfully conducted at A M Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College. Organized by RAATI, RGUHS, Bangalore. The event aimed to enhance the teaching skills of faculty members by equipping them with modern educational methodologies and assessment techniques. Twenty-seven staff members of A M Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College participated in the educational methodology course.

The event inaugurated with an introductory speech by Dr. Karuna N. Patil, setting the tone for the two-day workshop. Dr. Prathibha Nagannaver provided an insightful introduction to the expert trainers by reading their biodata. The esteemed dignitaries on the dais included Dr. Roserio D'Souza, Principal and Dr. Kiran Patil, Vice Principal of A M Shaikh Homoeopathic medical college. The resource persons for the event were Dr. Sheetal Sanikopp from Maratha Mandal Dental College, Belagavi Dr. Moonica Katti from B.D. Jatti Homoeopathic Medical College, Dharwad

Sessions and Key Topics.

The training sessions were conducted over two days, covering essential topics in educational methodology.

Day 1:

- Levels and functions of educational objectives
- Role of taxonomy in simplifying learning and assessment
- Guilbert's hierarchy for healthcare education
- Adult learning principles
- Teaching-learning methods
- Introduction to microteaching.

Day 2:

- Principles of student assessment
- Theory-based assessment
- Question paper setting
- Models of clinical and practical assessment
- Conducting viva examinations
- Microteaching session where all staff members presented on their respective topics.

Conclusion

The event concluded with an interactive microteaching session, where participants demonstrated their understanding by presenting on their chosen topics. The workshop was highly engaging and provided valuable insights into effective teaching and assessment methodologies. The faculty members actively participated, making the event a resounding success.

This initiative by RAATI, RGUHS, Bangalore, effectively contributed to the professional development of educators, ensuring enhanced teaching methodologies for improved student learning outcomes. At the end of the session, Dr. Sheetal, Dr. Moonica Katti, and Dr. Kiran Patil shared their feedback on the two-day educational methodology training. Dr. Rosareo D'souza delivered the presidential remarks, while Dr. Karuna Patil expressed gratitude with a vote of thanks.

