

A. M. SHAIKH HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE & HOSPITAL, BELAGAVI STUDENTS SHINE AT NATIONAL LEVEL WITH CCRH-STSH SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS.

In a moment of pride and academic distinction, two students from A.M. Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College & Hospital, Belagavi, have brought laurels to their institution by securing the prestigious Short-Term Studentship in Homeopathy (STSH) Scholarship Award-2023, instituted by the Central Council for Research in Homoeopathy (CCRH), New Delhi.

Mr. Srujan Hiremath, under the expert mentorship of Dr. Alok A. Katkol, was awarded for his observational study titled "The Effect of Predefined Homeopathic Medicines on the Pain Intensity in Frozen Shoulder in Type-II Diabetics in the Age Group of 40-70 Years. " His work explores the role of homeopathic therapeutics in managing musculoskeletal complications commonly associated with diabetes.

Miss Jashnavi Mallangi, guided by Dr. Shwetha Nanjannavar, was recognized for her prospective interventional study titled "Management of Dental Fluorosis with Predefined Homeopathic Medicines in Subjects of Korugutta Palli, Andhra Pradesh (Age Group 5-12 Years). " Her research sheds light on the potential of homeopathy in addressing dental health challenges in endemic regions affected by fluorosis.

Both the students were felicitated at the grand celebrations of World Homoeopathy Day-2025, held at the Mahatma Mandir Convention & Exhibition Centre in Gandhinagar, Gujarat. The event, organized annually to commemorate the birth anniversary of Dr. Samuel Hahnemann, the founder of homeopathy, witnessed participation from distinguished scientists, academicians, clinicians, and students from across the country. The STSH program by CCRH, New Delhi is a nationally recognized platform aimed at Promoting research aptitude among undergraduate homoeopathy students and nurturing the next generation of researchers. The selection of Mr. Hiremath and Miss. Mallangi is a testament to the high academic standards and robust research culture fostered at A.M. Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College. The Management, Principal and faculty members of the college extend their heartfelt Congratulations to the students and their mentors, applauding their dedication and hard work.
