

WORLD HOMOEOPATHY DAY CELEBRATION

A.M. Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College, Hospital & P.G. Research Centre

A.M. Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College, Hospital & P.G. Research Centre celebrated the 271st World Homoeopathy Day with great enthusiasm and zeal. The program was graced by the presence of Chief Guest Dr. Prashanth Donkar, Chief Coordinator Dr. M. J. Attar, Principal Dr. Kiran N. Patil, Vice Principal Dr. Najib Patel, along with faculty members and students.

The event commenced with the formal escorting and floral welcome of the dignitaries by General Secretary Ms. Ruksar Shaikh, followed by an invocation song by Ms. Silviya, which set a serene and respectful tone for the program. The Principal, Dr. Kiran N. Patil, delivered the welcome address, highlighting the growing importance and relevance of Homoeopathy in modern healthcare. The ceremonial lighting of the lamp and garlanding of portraits marked the formal inauguration. As a token of appreciation, the Chief Guest was felicitated by the Principal and Vice Principal. This was followed by the prize distribution ceremony for various events conducted during Homoeopathy Week. The inaugural session concluded with a vote of thanks. Following the formal program, an ECG workshop was conducted by Dr. Prashanth Donkar. The session provided valuable hands-on training and practical exposure to final-year students, interns, and postgraduate scholars. In addition, students actively participated in a model-making and poster exhibition, demonstrating their creativity and understanding of homoeopathic concepts.

The program was organized by final-year BHMS students under the guidance of Principal Dr. Kiran N. Patil and Intern Coordinator Dr. Rajashree R. Undale.
