“A.M. SHAIKH HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE PARTICIPATES IN INTEGRATED INTERNATIONAL CONCLAVE 2026”

Faculty members and students of A.M. Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College, Hospital and P.G. Research Centre, Belagavi, Karnataka, actively participated in the Integrated International Conclave 2026 organized by Sri Sairam Medical College and Research Centre, West Tambaram, Chennai. The institution achieved a significant milestone as Dr. Jyoti Vijaykumar, Professor, Department of Practice of Medicine, secured the Third Prize for her research paper titled “An In-Vitro Study to Evaluate the Cholesterol-Lowering Activity of Rosmarinus officinalis 30C, 200C and 1M in Hyperlipidaemic Blood Samples.” Her accomplishment brought laurels to the institution and highlighted its dedication to quality research.

Further strengthening the institution's academic presence, Dr. Premalata B. Rotti, Associate Professor, Department of Homoeopathic Repertory and Case Taking, presented a case report on “Evaluating the Role of Individualized Remedy Selection in Menstrual Health: A Case Report on Premenstrual Dysphoric Disorder (PMDD).” Ms. Runali N. Dukare, a III BHMS student, presented her RGUHS STSH research paper titled “Assessing the Inhibition of Cell Proliferation and Apoptotic Activity of Galium aparine and Hoang Nan Against Cisplatin in Mouth Cancer Cell Lines (KB3-1).” The research presentations were highly appreciated by the judges and participants, reflecting A.M. Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College's continued commitment to academic excellence, innovation, and advancing homoeopathic research.
