“A. M. SHAIKH HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE,
CONDUCTS ONE-DAY WORKSHOP ON NABL ACCREDITATION AND RECOGNITION,”

A. M. Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College, Belagavi, in association with the Quality Council of India (QCI), successfully organized a one-day workshop on NABL Accreditation and Recognition on 28 July 2026 at the college campus. The workshop aimed to create awareness about quality standards, accreditation procedures, and their significance in enhancing the quality of healthcare institutions and laboratories. The sessions were conducted by Dr. Sudhindra, QCI Expert, and Ms. Nethra, Coordinator, National Board for Quality Promotion (NBQP), Quality Council of India, who shared valuable insights into the NABL accreditation process and its benefits.

The workshop witnessed enthusiastic participation from delegates representing Bharatesh Homoeopathic Medical College, Belagavi; BVVS Homoeopathic Medical College, Bagalkote; KLE Homoeopathic Medical College, Belagavi; and Dr. Malakareddy Homoeopathic Medical College, Kalaburagi. The programme served as an excellent platform for knowledge sharing, professional interaction, and promoting quality initiatives in homoeopathic medical education and healthcare services, reinforcing the institution's commitment to academic excellence and continuous quality improvement.
